The Hot Lake Sanatorium

Has grown out of your need for expert health care, such as you can obtain only where every modern facility for diagnosis, and medical and surgical attention are gathered under one roof and where physicians are always in the house.

Other reasons for the fame of the Hot Lake Sanatorium are the existence there of the hottest developed spring in the world and of the famous Phymere farm. The latter is operated to assure fresh produce for the sanatorium tables.

REPORT OF DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS

BOISE DISTRICT

The Boise District is composed of eighteen charges—ten stations and eight circuits. Twelve of our men are Conference men in the active relation and the balance are supplies.

At our last conference, Fairfield, Hill City and Mountain Home were left to be supplied. Hayes did not accept the work at Apple Valley nor Dorman the work at Glenss Ferry, Weaver was sick in the Hospital and could not return to Vale ct., Shoshone was not prepared to properly support Hansen and Nyssa was in the same situation regarding Fleming. The appointment of Haudenschild to Jordan Valley was purely nominal, so altogether there were eight charges needing speedy adjustment.

By an organized survey the responsibility for Camas County was placed upon the Methodists and public sentiment mobilized for a Methodist Community Church. With Episcopal sanction Brother A. B. Weaver was released from the Vale ct. and placed in charge, as a result Fairfield-Hill City charge jumps from $650 and house to $1400 and house in Ministerial support, and the membership has more than doubled. Dr. W. M. Crowther was asked to serve Mountain Home as supply and said, "I cannot refuse." After a few months of very satisfactory service he suddenly broke in health, went to the hospital and soon died.

Dr. Robert Smylie, a retired member of the N. W. Ia Conference supplied the work until Conference. He and Mrs. Smylie have both given very helpful ministry to the charge. By negotiation with Supt. White and Bishop Burns, Brother Fleming was released from the work at Nyssa and happily placed at Blackfoot. Apple Valley was joined with Nyssa and T. R. Clarkson of Montana was secured as pastor. He remained three Sundays and then left to join his wife in England. Later we secured Rev. L. C. Freeman as Supply and he has remained the balance of the year. Brother H. I. Hansen was released from appointment to Shoshone and happily placed at Glenss Ferry where he has had a good year. Vale and Jordan Valley we have been unable to supply. In all of these places we have been seriously hindered by the adverse economic conditions and it has been usually easier to get men than to get the charges to undertake the support of a pastor. By his own request

Brother James was relieved from the work at Ontario the first of June to go upon a little acreage near Meridian. Rev. N. H. Lines was secured to supply Ontario until Conference and Brother James was placed in charge of our re-opened work at Barber, the lumber-mill suburb of Boise. Geo. H. Quigley at Immanuel, Boise, and L. H. Jenkins of Richfield-Dietrich charges asked and were granted two months vacations without pay.

The unexpected and untimely death of Brother Cullison, our pastor at Meridian created a serious vacancy which was partly filled during his illness by supplies. Recently Rev. C. E. Deal, formerly Field Secretary of Gooding College was secured to finish out the year, and his ministry has been greatly appreciated.

Brother C. M. Knight has had an unusually good year at Wilder and Home-ale. Brother Baker has had a splendid year at Caldwell. He has steadily built up a constructive program, the charge is now on its feet and faces a new year with courage and enthusiasm. Brother Parker as usual reports a fine increase in membership at Nampa, with good progress in the collections on the building indebtedness, and a good showing in benevolences as well.

First Church Boise with Dr. J. A. Glendinning, and the untiring pastoral labors of Dr. W. W. Van Dusen, a member of this Conference in the retired relationship. With such a team First Church is well-blessed and happy. Another Special Gift of $5000 to the World Service Program will help to save the District and the Conference from a serious shortage in benevolences.

Brother and Sister Luscombe have had a good year at Kuna. South Side Blvd. and Melba are unanimous in their request for the reappointment of Brother W. W. Deal.

Shoshone has had a broken year due to misplaced confidence in the ap-pointee. The mistake was discovered in time however to save the charge from serious damage.

For four months I have been assisted by a Missionary Evangelist in the person of Rev. S. E. Smutz of the Nebraska Conference. About 75 have been added to our membership rolls as a result of his efforts.

We have organized a local Methodist Community Church with twenty members at Barber, and eight candidates await baptism. They will be supplied with a regular pastor for the coming year.

In Boise a joint Committee has held three meetings for the purpose of an intensive study of the situation in the light of the past and future of Methodism. One result is the uniting of Immanuel and Collister.

The Superintendent assisted in the program of the Epworth League Institute of Central Idaho at Ketchum. At this Institute a permanent site for a Methodist Camp Ground was agreed upon and Directors elected, with instruction to incorporate and obtain a lease from the Government. $300 was raised for improvements.

If our men had not "endured as seeing Him who is invisible" many of them would have forsaken the field. Almost without exception they have stood heroically by the task, proving their faith in "the city that is to come, whose builder and maker is God."

Again I must pay tribute to the Ladies-Aid Societies and similar organizations on the District who have this year contributed in one form or another to the budgets of our churches nearly $10,000. Many of our churches would be lame indeed without this crutch to lean upon.

Never have I been more kindly treated than by the ministry and laity of the Boise District during the past year.

IRA R. ALDRICH.

LA GRANDE DISTRICT

Bishop Smith and Brethren of the Inter Mountain (Legally Idaho) Conference:

We bring you the annual report of the La Grande district with a feeling of uncertainty as to our ability to represent sufficiently the progress of the past year. When one attempts to represent in writing the activities and the spirit of the kingdom of heaven he must realize before he begins the impossibility of finishing the task. He knows that the finest and best evidences of the power and progress of the kingdom cannot be expressed. We can give only material and limited evidence of miraculous spiritual power that saves the world from sin and causes the flower of immortality to blossom on the grave of buried hopes.

Improvements of Church Property—There has been no large amount of church building. A number of improvements of churches and parsonages are worth noticing. At Wallowa the church building has been treated to a new coat of paint. Elgin outgrew the Sunday school accommodations so an additional building was purchased, moved on the church lot and connected with the old building. There is now adequate accommodations for the school. There is no indebtedness on account of this improvement.

Brother Wallis planned and carried through some much needed repairs and improvements on the parsonage at Island City. Brother McFarland has been and is still busy carrying through some improvements at North Powder. A cement walk has been laid across the church property. Trees have been set out on the lawn. A garage has been built, and the church property is in process of being repapered and repainted inside and outside. Canyon City has completely renovated the church building.

However, the outstanding building project on the district is at Cascade. Here we believe has been built a structure that is the last word for community activities. It is under the auspices and control of the Methodist Episcopal church. Save one other denomination thirty miles away is the only church in Valley County having a resident pastor. The foundation of the building is sixty by ninety feet. The walls are solid concrete and brick. The building consists, in addition to a fine auditorium and Sunday school rooms, a community hall, gymnasium, shower baths and dressing rooms, kitchen and dining room, library and rest room. The ladies of the church caught the building inspiration and have erected a splendid up-to-date parsonage. This is built in harmony with the church of cement and brick.

Too much credit cannot be given to the pastor, Joseph Pope, for this splendid enterprise. The two properties represent a valuation of $25,000. The community is unitedly back of the church movement.

World Service—At the beginning of the year we held two rallies on the district for the purpose of studying the future program of the church. One of these was held at La Grande and the other at Fruitland. All but one of the pastors of the District were present. Three hundred fifty World Service books were purchased and distributed over the district. We are not entirely satisfied with the financial returns for World Service. Occasionally a church has not felt its share of obligations in winning the world for the Kingdom of God. We are sure that part of this is due to the confusion caused by the closing of the Centenary period and the beginning of the World Service period during the conference year. Cove was the only charge that reported its quota in full before conference.

Evangelism—The period of evangelism, closing at Easter, was generally observed throughout the district. Favorable reports have come to us from many churches.

Epworth League Institute and Camp Meeting—The Institute at Wallowa Lake was a decided success. There were ninety-five paid registrations and one hundred fifty were present on the grounds. Dean Wallis and manager Hershey did their parts in a fine way. Dr. Cottingham and Dr. Jasper gave inspiring Sunday school and missionary addresses at the morning hour of the camp meeting. The brethren did the preaching at night. We were greatly pleased and benefited by Bishop Smith's presence and addresses on Saturday and Sunday.

Gooding College—Gooding College is winning increased favor in this district. We look for an ever-increasing number of students for the college, and more money for its financial needs.

Special Mention—There are always special features of church work which, because of their success and because they furnish suggestions for others, should be mentioned. Brother Keith, who is the tithing secretary for the district, has put on a program of education and appeal for tithers that has been eminently successful. Nearly sixty, including some of the leading men in his church, enrolled as tithers.

Brother Wallis held an indoor Epworth League Institute that was very successful.

At Payette, Brother and sister Hall have been carrying on with a junior church after Sunday school. They have also planned a morning service for the vacation period that has kept the attendance to normal during this slack period.

Brother Manning at Huntington has proven an efficient scout master. He has a troop of twenty-seven boys, and his work with them alone justifies his presence as a pastor in the town.

Brother Joseph Chester at Baker did a conspicuous piece of work in religious education. His classes were popular and well attended.

The Joseph Epworth League constructed for League purposes a large building on the camp ground.

At Fruitland the social and recreational work of the community church were a fine asset to the religious work of the church. Between sixty and eighty high school students were in constant attendance at the various religious services of the church.

WILLIAM M. EWING.

POCATELLO DISTRICT

Bishop and Brethren:

I want to record by sincere appreciation of the cordial and helpful assistance rendered me by my colleagues.

We record with joy the fact the death angel has invaded no parsonage home on our district this year.

This district is the home of Gooding College so near and dear to the heart of every conference member. Though only six years old its work is accredited by the State Board of Education and by the best universities of the land, including Harvard, John Hopkins and California. All it asks from each of our charges is as many dollars as it has members, and the men of our district are breaking all previous records this year, both in the amounts gladly given and in the number of students.

CHARGES

Aberdeen—Samuel Allison is finishing his third and best year. Sunday-school and Epworth League are among the best in the District, the latter taking the banner at our Institute.

Ashton—B. F. Meredith has enjoyed a pleasant and a prosperous year. Early in the year Evangelist Loose was engaged to assist in special meetings. Some said, "It can't be done!" The pastor replied, "It shall be done!" and it was done. About seventy new members were added to the church and substantial financial strength was afforded.

American Falls—C. C. Brown was forced to supplement his salary by teaching. About the holidays he was taken with an acute attack of appendicitis and for several days his life was in the balances. Prayers in his behalf were answered and he was able to resume his duties. Early this summer he was released from his work and Brother Allison of Aberdeen has been supplying. As the town is to be moved to make place for the great dam now in process of construction the plan is to salvage the old buildings and erect both a new church and parsonage.

Blackfoot—B. G. Hankins was appointed to this charge last year but soon after Conference chose to return to his old conference in Iowa. J. J. Fleming was taken from Nyssa to this charge.

Buhl—C. E. Helman is the oldest man in Inter-Mountain Conference from the standpoint of years of service. He is finishing his third year here. The basement of the new church has been roofed in and made into one of the most attractive auditoriums in the conference. A complete kitchen equipment has been installed, the interior of the basement ceiled and plastered and beautifully decorated. The last of the old debt has been paid and a substantial sum raised toward the proposed superstructure. The entire church is alive with a wide-awake brotherhood, Boy Scouts and Campfire Girls. The Ladies Aid earned $1177 and the W. F. M. S. raised $111, while $261 has been paid on the World Service program.

Burley and Albion—Olney Kendall, pastor. A $10,000 debt was reduced. This year something like $2,400 has been paid on interest and principal. The salary has been advanced from $1500 to $2000 and parsonage. There has been a seven-day program put on.

For the current year Albion and Burley must be linked, but a permanent pastor must be secured for the future.

Castleford—Under the leadership of H. Fryer. In February Miss Mary McKee assisted in revival services. Seventy new members have been added to the membership.

Downey and McCammon—Early in the year Brother Fred Nihart, a local preacher of Buhl was drafted for this work, and his appointment has been apparently a helpful solution to the local problem.

Filer—J. D. Gillilan was appointed to this charge, but before taking up his residence was compelled to submit to a major operation. For weeks his life was despaired of. Only God knows the record of prayers offered for his recovery and today he enjoys the best of health.

Gooding—H. G. McCallister, the genial host of the conference has raised $7,500 in actual cash. This with the $750 from the Board of Home Missions and Church extension has enabled them to "carry on" to date without a dollar of incurred debt. The District Superintendent assisted by the pastor and C. E. Deal conducted the ritualistic services and the Masonic body aided in their good offices in laying the corner stone.

Idaho Falls—Horace Turner of Montana came to us. He has proven himself the man for the situation. $500 was received from the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension, and the current debt of $3,600 was eliminated. There were 57 baptisms.

Jerome—W. A. Winters has been tireless in his work. The membership is small, but no finer can be found. Their Ladies' Aid raised over $800. Wendell and Jerome have been temporarily joined. Dr. Winters' reports having made about 2,500 calls on the people.

Kimberly—C. D. Fletcher, pastor. The salary was advanced from $700 to $1,400 so that the full time of the pastor might be had. Results show the wisdom and economy of this step. Evangelist Loose and wife assisted in special revival meetings in the winter and great success followed.

Mackay—John B. Sutton, pastor. Mackay presents a real problem which with our new plan for the coming year may prove a success.

Hansen—Tom Blodgett of Mountain Home was secured. Previously the church had raised about $500 for pastoral support. This year we report $2,500 for that purpose and a $7,000 parsonage. In March he endured a siege of pneumonia. Recovery seemed impossible, and it took fourteen weeks to nurse him back to health. There were 104 members added to the church and 34 baptized, and more than 200 received the communion.

Murtaugh and Golden Valley—V. R. Bell, superintendent of the public schools at Murtaugh has been looking after this work for the past four years; but in July he returned to Nebraska and Mrs. Rose Kendall completed the work of the conference year.

Pocatello—Harry Hamilton, pastor here for twelve years. He preaches to large and enthusiastic congregations.

Rupert and Paul—C. O. Heath, pastor. This fearless man has made bootleggers seek for other fields in which to ply their unlawful trade. His congregations are steadily growing and the year has been profitable to both the pastor and the people.

Salmon—G. R. Archer's friends say the power to work miracles has not wholly past. Recently the Superintendent made a trip around his mighty circuit. First he went to Leadore, forty miles distant, where a meeting was held; then forty miles in an opposite direction to May in Pahsimeroi Valley and held services. He will do regular work here in the coming year.

Tuttle and Hagerman—C. E. Tate has been faithful in looking after all the interests of the field. In early spring he was married and the lady proves a veritable help mate in caring for every detail of the charge.

Twin Falls—C. E. Winning, pastor of the largest church on the District. He arranged for church-training night and met with decided success. This church has a debt of $27,000. However, arrangements have been made whereby within the coming year to care for this debt, and something like $4,500 has been paid on the interest and principal. This church reports nearly 100% increase in World Service collections. It sent the largest delegation to the Intermountain League Institute last summer.

Bliss—This small charge has been supplied from time to time by President Tenney for the past year. Every claim has been paid in full.

COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION

Keenly aware of the menace of a materialistic emphasis in education we are more than ever convinced of the imperative need of the support of those educational institutions which stand primarily for the building of christian character. Gooding College in its personnel, administration and academic standards, holds a place in this great territory second to none as a character building institution. We are highly appreciative of the untiring labors and optimism of our president, C. W. Tenney, and would urge a greater support of the institution represented by him. The generous gift of our board this year to Gooding College is a clear indication of its faith in this work.

We therefore respectfully recommend that the educational fund collection this ensuing year be given to Gooding College.

We also recommend that the dollar a year per member in behalf of Gooding College be continued.

As members of the Trustee Board to take the place of those who, this year, automatically retire, we recommend the election of the following lay and ministerial nominations: John W. Harding, Twin Falls; S. C. Smith, La Grande; Mrs. C. E. B. Roberts, Gooding; J. E. Baker, Caldwell; W. W. Van Dusen, Boise, and H. S. Hamilton, Boise.

KIMBALL SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

We are in hearty accord with the work of Kimball School of Theology at Salem, Oregon, and with the plan to raise $250,000 within the quadrenium for strengthening the program and insuring the future of this training school for ministers, missionaries and other religious leaders. We urge our pastors to be alert for promising young men to prepare for our ministry and direct their attention to Kimball School of Theology.

We nominate as trustees from this conference the Rev. Elmer Grant Keith in the class of 1926, and E. C. S. Brainard in the class of 1925.

CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS ENDOWMENT COMMISSION

Money invested in first class mortgage securities is two thousand dollars. One-half of this is an annuity on which we are paying interest at the rate of five and one-half per cent during the life time of the annuent. The entire loan bears interest at the rate of seven per cent.

Three months ago we received another annuity of five hundred dollars on which we are to pay interest at the rate of six and one-half per cent during the life-time of the annuent. This sum plus one hundred and nine dollars and seventeen cents, is loaned five hundred and seventy at the rate of eight per cent and the remaining thirty-nine and seventeen cents is in the Savings Department of the First National Bank of Idaho.

The increase in the funds of the commission over a year ago is five hundred and fifteen dollars and sixty-eight cents.

The net proceeds of our funds is less than usual this year, owing to the change in the interest dates brought about by the reloaning of the larger part of our money. Accordingly, this year we are able to pay to the Conference Stewards only fifty-three dollars and forty-three cents.

After careful study of the entire situation, we are convinced that one of the great needs of this Conference is a greatly enlarged permanent fund. We are equally clear in the opinion that in view of the urgent needs of other claims the time is not yet ripe to place an agent in the field in the interest of this fund.

We request the secretary-treasurer of this Commission, to write to each pastor, sending him literature, for distribution on his charge, and we urge each minister to interest himself and his people in materially adding to the endowment fund of the Conference in all practical ways.

W. W. VAN DUSEN.

REPORT OF THE FINANCE COMMISSION

This commission having the responsibility assigned to it by the annual conference of bringing forth a report on District Superintendents support submit the following:

We find upon investigation of the statistical tables of the conference for this year that the amount of cash salary of pastors exclusive of house rent amounted to $70,853.00. At the per cent of pro rating fixed last year for District Superintendents support this should yield $7,085.00 an amount far too small to meet expenses incident to the office and furnish an adequate support for three superintendents.

If, however, this year there is to be two districts in place of three and the per cent is to be retained just the same as last year the estimated return should be $3,542.00 for each of the two superintendents of the conference. If fixed at 8 per cent it should yield $2,834.00 each, at 9 per cent $3,188.00.

The commission is aware that 10 per cent as heretofore would still place the salaries of our superintendents below many of the superintendents in Methodism, yet in view of the low average salaries of the pastors of the conference and the urgent demand upon the part of our churches for some relief in pro-rated expense your committee report to you an estimate of 9 per cent of the cash salaries to be received this year by the pastors as the amount to be estimated for superintendents support for the year.

FOREIGN MISSIONS

The morning prayers of the Methodist missionaries are heard around the world. These men and women, trained servants of the Master, who endure hardships and toil and isolation to be the rescuers of the race, are the hope of civilization, and our Centenary offering enabled them to plant the standard of Methodism on the needs of the world.

Today this work is seriously embarrassed and some of it jeopardized on account of the falling benevolent income. What a tragedy it would be if, in the presence of great needs and prayed-for opportunities, it should become necessary to close institutions, recall missionaries and discharge native workers!

What a thrill of joy will go through the Church, even to the remotest foreign mission field; what new heart and hope will be given to struggling workers who labor in the submerged sections of our great cities, in rural fields and on our widely extended frontier when the good news shall be announced that the interrogation mark of fear has given place to the exclamation mark of joyous faith! and the news shall be broadcasted that Methodism has not failed and that the entire benevolent budget has been met.

G. R. ARCHER, Chairman.

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

When a year ago the invitation of Gooding made possible our coming to this delightful convention city, we all knew that the genial pastor-host, the Rev. H. C. McCallister and his good people, would in their efforts to make us comfortable and happy, more than sustain the already flattering reputation of their little city as an entertaining center.

Our generous anticipations have been most happily realized, our wants have been sensed, and our hosts have seemingly joyed in satisfying them.

Especially do we wish to record our appreciation of the wisely directed and untiring efforts in behalf of our comfort on the part of Mr. McCallister and his good wife, whose efforts have resulted in the finest homes of the little city being most hospitably thrown open for our entertainment, and the occupants of those homes have so sought to excel one another in extending courtesies that we record it as our belief that they are happy in receiving us, and have given us of their best thinking perchance that they might be entertaining angels unawares, and do hereby express our cordial appreciation of this unstinted effort in our behalf.

We also record our very great appreciation of our painstaking and efficient Secretarial Staff, whose years of service have made it possible for them to keep an accurate minute of the conference business and have it ready for the printer in a few hours after adjournment.

We have been most happy in the men and the messages brought us by the Wise Men of the East, and elsewhere. Dr. Arthur F. Ragatz, representing the American Bible Society, fascinated us with his "Romance of the Book", Dr. Clarence True Wilson, the most dynamic might of moral power ever turned loose in this, the most potential age of reform that Methodism has ever known, by his presence and address, more than demonstrated the wisdom of the General Conference in continuing him at the head of the board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals; the genial brotherly and irrepressible Dr. Edward C. Tuller, whose impassioned oratory and charming personality placed upon our hearts the work of the Deaconess Board; and Dr. Edward Laird Mills, the efficient and widely quoted and still more widely read editor, whose trenchant pen has made for our Pacific Christian Advocate a place of highest rank in the family of papers. Each of these men and all of them have added immeasurably to the inspiration and the delight of our conference and we will gladly welcome them should their official duties permit them to come again this way.

But if these official visitors were welcome because of their messages, what shall we say of Bishop H. Lester Smith, D.D., L.L.D., our newly appointed residential bishop, whose graciousness of manner, whose winsomeness of personality and whose clarity of thought and expression so immediately transformed him from a comparative stranger to a most welcome brother beloved? He is welcome to our Conference and thrice welcome to our churches for he has already captured our hearts, and it is our prayer, that we, as ministers of God, may have grace such that we can follow loyally our leader as he seeks to make plain to us the wisdom and the paths of our Christ. With him we pledge to loyally labor and for him we shall not cease to pray.

CHAS. E. WINNING.

STATE OF THE CHURCH

The Methodist Episcopal Church has taken its stand against war. Through its General Conference it has declared its determination to outlaw the whole war system. War is not only the chief collective sin, its continuance means the destruction of national life and the "suicide of civilization." We are therefore, actuated not only by the Christian but also the patriotic impulse when we here pledge ourselves to put forth our utmost endeavor to the end that war may be abolished.

We deplore the designation of September 12 as Defense Day and are opposed to the program as outlined by the War Department. This proposed display of our superior national resources has already aroused the suspicion of other nations. Japan has recognized it as a military gesture and has responded by designating a recruiting day.

At this time, when we are at peace with all nations, we deem this procedure of the War Department most unfortunate. It is evident that the peoples of the world are desirous of trying some other means of maintaining international peace than that of competitive armaments. Fifty-four nations are members of the League of Nations. Forty-eight adhere to the World Court. There is an ever deepening interest in Senator Borah's proposal for the outlawry of war.

The change of leadership in some of the European nations and the acceptance of the Dawes' plan for the settlement of the reparations question has brought the dawn of a new day of peace to Europe.

It would be much more in harmony with the historic spirit and policy of the United States to celebrate the retirement of General Pershing by a national expression of thanksgiving to God for the return of peace; and there would likely be more general and enthusiastic observance of the twelfth of September if there should be launched on that day an educational program which would ultimately, in the estimate of all peoples, place war in the same category with dueling and piracy.

We recommend for pastors and people a careful study of the General Conference resolution on war and urge them to carry out the educational program suggested.

WM. J. LUSCOMBE, Chairman.
J. A. GLENDINNING, Secretary.

SUNDAY SCHOOL REPORT

The tremendous possibilities for weal or woe in the childhood of America should grip the heart of every citizen, especially of every christian citizen, and more particularly of those to whom is entrusted the leadership of children.

The conservation of our national resources has for many years been made a matter of profound study. But there is a real danger that this, the greatest of all our resources, shall be largely wasted unless we become more alert in conserving it.

We recognize the Sunday School as the chief organized agency of the church, for the care and culture of childhood, and while deeply gratified at the splendid enrollment and attendance, we cannot close our eyes to the careless, hap-hazard, methods, and low ideals still seen in many of our schools. The Sunday School should everywhere be recognized as a real school, where the most important instruction is to be given or received.

Therefore, we urge that the greatest care be exercised in the selection of teachers, that, as far as possible, each teacher should be equipped not only in mind, but also in heart, for this sublime task of moulding life and character during its plastic stage.

We urge that persistent efforts be made to induce the boys and girls in our Sunday Schools to also attend the regular preaching services, in order that the pastor, as well as their Sunday School teacher, may have a part in their religious instruction.

We are convinced that a large per cent of the present indifference of the youth to things religious is chargeable to home influence and the indifferent attitude of parents toward the church and its desire to lead their children to Christ. Therefore persistent efforts should be made to enlist the sympathetic cooperation of the home with the Sunday School in the spiritual culture of the child.

EDWIN DEACON
G. W. BARNES.

COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE

After many years of tremendous agitation and conflict the saloon as a drinking place has ceased to have any legal standing in our country. One of the most beneficent acts of legislation is the eighteenth Amendment to our national constitution. It is most fortunate for our country, and for the people of the whole earth, that this marked forward step was taken before the great world war had come to a conclusion. The seed sowing of the Gospel of Jesus Christ through the medium of His church has brought a wonderful harvest of good fruits at a time when it was most needed.

Our present duty as citizens and lovers of human progress must be clear to all. We should be true to the highest ideals of the public. We are resolved to give active support to the Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals of our own church, the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of the World, and the Anti-Saloon League of the nation. King alcohol shall not only go no further, but he shall lose his crown, and his sceptre shall be broken in all the earth.

W. W. VAN DUSEN.

SOCIAL SERVICE COMMISSION

1. That we heartily endorse the War Pronouncement of our General Conference.

2. Believing that it is worse than futile to piously pray for peace while we continue to prepare for war, we demand the discontinuance of military training in our Methodist schools and colleges.

3. We call upon the next State Legislature of Idaho, upon assembling, to immediately ratify the Child Labor Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

4. We urge the brethren, as recommended by the General Conference, to read in their respective churches on Labor Sunday of each year, the Social Creed as printed in our discipline.

5. We commend the careful consideration by the pastors and laymen of our conference of the new Industrial Pronouncement of our Church.

6. The General Conference, in its hearty commendation of the Methodist Federation for Social Service, declares: "It is imperative that there be some agency in the Methodist Episcopal Church for the purpose of raising the question of the social implications of the gospel of Jesus."

WORLD SERVICE COUNCIL COMMITTEE

We, the World Service Council Committee, of the Inter-mountain Conference, recommend that, as a Conference, we:

First: Elect our members to the Area Council, at our District conferences.

Second: That we enthusiastically endorse the Bishop's request, to organize or re-organize our District Conferences, and that they shall function according to the laws of the Church. And that said Conferences be held as early in the year as possible.

Third: That we lament the fact that our Centenary and World Service offerings for this Conference year, is 13% less than the previous Conference year, therefore, we urge the ones whose amounts this year did not equal last year, to endeavor to bring up this sum, and that each and all of the brethren endeavor to collect all moneys possible for the World Service, and that all amounts be in the hands of the World Service treasurer, at Chicago, before the first of November.

Fourth: That we recommend an every-member canvass, for the securing of pledges, for the World Service apportionment, be made at once, throughout the conference for the Conference year of 1924-25.

MEMOIRS

HOMER E. CULLISON

The Rev. Homer E. Cullison, son of the Rev. R. M. Cullison and his wife, Eleanor, was born in Green County, Indiana, December 6th, 1870. He came with his parents to Kansas in 1883 and, as a young man, obtained his Bachelor's Degree from Baker University in 1892. One year later he entered the Ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church and, after preaching a few years enrolled at Garrett Biblical Institute receiving from it the Degree of Bachelor of Divinity in 1902.

His first marriage, to Miss Eva Sanders in 1896, was broken by her untimely death in 1903, and he was left alone. On April eleventh, 1906 he married Miss Mary Ott, who is the mother of his only son, Charles, now fifteen years of age.

He came to Idaho in 1908, transferring from the Kansas Conference to the Idaho Conference, of which up until the time of his death he was a faithful and efficient member, serving upon many of its important Boards and Committees. Mr. Cullison was a fine grained Christian gentleman, always courteous, and remarkably free from passion or prejudice. On this account he was a brother beloved and will be seriously missed from the counsels and labors of our Conference. He died calmly, full of Faith, and his passing was a benediction as well as a sorrow to those who were near him.

He died as a result of organic trouble for which there seemed to be no remedy, at a Boise hospital, Wednesday morning, June 18th, 1924, aged 53 years, six months and 12 days.

In this Conference he served the following charges: Emmett, Twin Falls, Weiser, Union, Burley, Blackfoot, Enterprise and Meridian.

He is survived by his wife Mary, his son Charles, his father and mother and two brothers, O. L. and R. E., residing at Iola, Kansas, and two sisters, Mrs. Cora Hibbard of Wichita, and Mrs. Ethel Liljigren of Pittsburg, California.

MRS. FRANK B. HARDIN

To those who knew her the life of Mrs. Frank B. Hardin was blessed. She was born in Savanna, Ill., December 25, 1860, and died in California, December 9th, 1923. Converted early in life, she joined the Methodist church. With her husband she served both in the Rock River and the Idaho Conference. She was a blessing in life, a blessing in death, and her name is perpetuated by a blessed memory.

RESOLUTION CONFERENCE MINUTE FUND

Resolved, That in the future it shall be the policy of this Conference to exact a tax from each effective member of the Conference equivalent to one-fourth of one per cent of his cash salary including missionary money but not house rent.

Welch's

"THE NATIONAL DRINK"

Absolute cleanliness in pressing is an essential in the preparation of Welch's and insures absolute freedom from fermentation.

Welch Quality has made this fruit juice the choice of Church Officers for the Sacrament. The original flavor will be retained without a metallic taste if Welch's is kept in glass containers until just before its use.

Made from choicest Concord grapes Welch's is a wholesome beverage for table and social use in the home. Sold by grocers and druggists.

The Welch Grape Juice Company, Westfield, N.Y.
